What Democratic Confident Would Be.
Our people are so confident of a victory over Virginia's enemies next month that they do not take time to ponder the innumerable evils that would result from the success of Manos. We marry and are given in marriage; we go to our homes and our neighbors, and we attend to business at our offices; we laugh and talk one with another; and we intend to vote the Democratic ticket when election-day comes. But we put from us the picture which we must know would follow the election of Manos and a Manos Legislature. We turn away from the contemplation of such a calamity, thinking to have our condition of happiness and contentment disturbed by the nightmare reflections that are conjured up when we concede the possibility of Manos's success.

But be sure, ye property-holders of Virginia, that you escape theills of your environment. If by criminal negligence, or criminal carelessness, or criminal indifference, you allow your State to pass out of your hands, you will certainly have to pay the price of your folly. You don't think that Manos can be an enemy of his own race? Why, then, does he bring to Virginia none but his enemies of her people? Manos and the Southern Republican congressmen could easily start a step to the waving of the bloody shirt by the Southern Republicans. It is for them to speak the word and their request would be complied with. Even the malignant doubting-thoms, who in the House of Representatives at Washington said of the Southern people that they were the most cruel, the most malignant, the most revolting, the most unprovoked, the most relentless, the most bloody, and the most foul characterized of the era of Southern repentance and returning loyalty. If by criminal negligence, or criminal carelessness, or criminal indifference, you allow your State to pass out of your hands, you will certainly have to pay the price of your folly.

THE REPUBLICANS OF OHIO WITH FLOODING OHIO WITH "BOODLE." The Democrats of that State have assisted their Virginia brethren by coming to Ohio to pour money into Ohio to save that Republican State from the clutches of the conquering Democrats.
Work for Young Democrats.
There is still time between now and the day of election for the Democrats in each town, village, and metropolitan district in Virginia where this matter may have been neglected of clubs of active young Democrats, whose duty it shall be to see that every Democratic voter comes to the polls. The Democratic canvass has been an enthusiastic one and the fight from the stamp has been conducted vigorously. But these very facts, coupled with the further fact that some disaffection exists in the ranks of the whites of the Republican party, may constitute an element of danger. They may induce some men who are aged and infirm, or who are under a pressure of private business, or who have long distances from the polls, to neglect their duty, making the canvass themselves that the outlook is so bright that their votes can be spared. Every Democratic vote will be needed and every Democratic ballot should be cast. The clubs have been referred to should see to it that no Democratic vote of confidence shall prevail. Reliance should not be placed in enthusiasm, much less should it be placed in the promise of the "kick-out" of the Democrats. The most of the leaders who abandoned Manos will adhere to their determination to the end, but who shall say that the 25th of November a compromise will not be reached between the boss and the mass of the kickers. At any rate safer for the Democratic party lies in the assumption that some such arrangement will be effected. Certain of the Democratic losses in the canvass are not yetting that the organization, and two prominent and potent factors in organization are the house-to-house visit system and the providing when necessary of conveyances to bring voters to the polls. No Democratic voter either in town or in the country should be left without the means for reaching his voting-place. If the active young Democrats throughout the Commonwealth will weigh these suggestions and act upon them they need have no fear that their generation will ever be cursed again by Manos or the South ever again be placed under the heel of the northern malignant and their stable allies.

A Mahone Hint.
The following is a copy of a letter sent to a lady who holds a Government position in Washington, to which she was appointed under Cleveland's Administration, and who now finds herself confronted with the alternative of furnishing means to help out Virginia against the negro rule or having herself listed as hostile to the officials who have the power to cause her removal. In other words, it is a threat. It plainly says: "Your money or your place?"

As citizens of Virginia, we are of course interested in the campaign toward progress and reform, and to determine its future political status.
The Old Dominion League was organized to assist the Southern people in their efforts to reach the point of determining its future political status.

What the Border Counties.
Our Raleigh (N. C.) special of this morning letter that it is learned that there have been no elections in the border counties. The House of Representatives in the Southern States. He says that the "evil" would have been corrected long ago, but for the different political complexion of the two branches of Congress, but that now, as both branches are Republican, there will be no excuse for its remaining uncorrected any longer. Mr. Edmunds confesses the truth. So long as there was a Democratic House of Representatives the Southern people were safe and free. They were sure of being allowed to conduct their own affairs in their own way. They knew that none would or could molest them or make them afraid. But now how different! Negro insurrection runs riot in contemplating the prospect of Republican rule in Washington to be followed by negro rule in the Southern States. What a picture of the man who with the Manos party?

One of the greatest political crimes that ever were committed since the world began was committed by THAD STEVENS, BEAST BETLER, JOHN SHERMAN, and the rest of the fiendish crew of Republicans who degraded and disgraced the white race and their own manhood when they forced the thirteenth, fourteenth, and fifteenth amendments into the Federal Constitution. The right of suffrage carries with it social rights. When the negro Free Douglass stepped on board of a United States vessel a national salute was fired in his honor. Cornell University and Fordham University, and many other colleges and universities, have elected him to their faculties. The negro Free Douglass stepped on board of a United States vessel a national salute was fired in his honor. Cornell University and Fordham University, and many other colleges and universities, have elected him to their faculties.

Will not Manos rule be negro rule? Why not? Two thirds of his supporters are negroes. The following are the names of that nine tenths of his supporters in Richmond are negroes. In some counties there are not whites enough "to officer the negroes." What do they expect at Manos's hands? They expect to take the places of the white Democratic letter-carriers in Richmond, Petersburg, Norfolk, and wherever there are southern carriers. They expect to be made policemen. They expect to be appointed trustees of the public schools of Richmond, white and black. They expect to sit in the Theatre amongst the white people at the public exercises of those schools. They are not clamorous now, because they are told by Manos and his henchmen that they must sit there until the white people are "educated" up to this point. The electors will elect negro representatives of themselves. It is useless for us to cling to the delusion that negroes are going to continue long to elect white men.

Wake up, ye solid men of Richmond. Arise, ye solid men. Do not shut your eyes to the ruin which will overtake you if you permit Manos and his stable henchmen to gain the victory which will certainly be yours if you will only reach out your hands and grasp it. Do not be like the man with the muck-rake.

"But recollect that Halstead is not a devoted Foraker man by any means. He is supporting Foraker for Governor, but him as the following excellent words from the Legislature and tears Foraker. We are pleased to see these signs that the Ohio Democrats are not saying a hopeless war against the Ohio maligned. They are saying the Democrats have a better chance for carrying the Legislature than for electing Halstead."

We believe there was something said some time ago about Mr. Halstead being a candidate for the Ohio maligned. We believe that he had quite lately been mentioned as a candidate until reminded of it by the Dispatch.
It is noted that we do not claim the Legislature to be Republican on joint ballot with Hamilton county. We claim it as a Republican on joint ballot with Hamilton county. That is to say you acknowledge that your party is already as good as defeated in Hamilton county. But what has become of the saying, "As goes Hamilton county so goes Ohio?"
It is learned that the Democrats of Virginia will learn that Colonel Bruce is charged by

It is for them to speak the word and their request would be complied with. Even the malignant doubting-thoms, who in the House of Representatives at Washington said of the Southern people that they were the most cruel, the most malignant, the most revolting, the most unprovoked, the most relentless, the most bloody, and the most foul characterized of the era of Southern repentance and returning loyalty. If by criminal negligence, or criminal carelessness, or criminal indifference, you allow your State to pass out of your hands, you will certainly have to pay the price of your folly.

Don't think that Manos can be an enemy of his own race? Why, then, does he bring to Virginia none but his enemies of her people? Manos and the Southern Republican congressmen could easily start a step to the waving of the bloody shirt by the Southern Republicans. It is for them to speak the word and their request would be complied with. What Democratic Confident Would Be.
Our people are so confident of a victory over Virginia's enemies next month that they do not take time to ponder the innumerable evils that would result from the success of Manos. We marry and are given in marriage; we go to our homes and our neighbors, and we attend to business at our offices; we laugh and talk one with another; and we intend to vote the Democratic ticket when election-day comes. But we put from us the picture which we must know would follow the election of Manos and a Manos Legislature. We turn away from the contemplation of such a calamity, thinking to have our condition of happiness and contentment disturbed by the nightmare reflections that are conjured up when we concede the possibility of Manos's success.

But be sure, ye property-holders of Virginia, that you escape theills of your environment. If by criminal negligence, or criminal carelessness, or criminal indifference, you allow your State to pass out of your hands, you will certainly have to pay the price of your folly. You don't think that Manos can be an enemy of his own race? Why, then, does he bring to Virginia none but his enemies of her people? Judge Dennis declared in his opinion delivered in the Circuit Court of Baltimore City in the Tea Trade Mark Case, that He-NO Tea was "a pure and unadulterated tea." These are his exact words.

HE-NO
The price of HE-NO TEA is made moderate by the largeness of the sale, and forethought of the execution, thus bringing it within the reach of all thrifty, home-loving people.
